

High Levels of Learning for All Students

Where to Address a Question, Complaint or Concern

The Van Buren Public Schools Board of Education and the Superintendent understand that some concerns require additional intervention or assistance.

While not all concerns will be resolved in a manner that an individual may wish, every concern will be heard and whatever assistance the District is able to provide will be made available.

